

The Inaugural Cape Breton Auto Show to be held at Centre 200 in Sydney will feature the 1962 Chevrolet Corvette from the Route 66 television show starring Martin Milner and George Maharis.

The event will be the first to be held indoors in a number of years in the local area. Mark the dates: June 28 and June 29.

Highlights of the weekend event include:

Saturday, June 28: Show from 11am to 8pm followed by Light entertainment, Cash bar, and Munchies to be held in the MacDonald Room at Centre 200.

Sunday, June 29: Buffet Breakfast at Casino Nova Scotia. Presentation of Awards voted on by the show participants. The show will conclude with a City Cruise.

There will be local crafters with items on display for sale throughout the weekend.

Hourly Prize draws will be held for show participants.

Two nights at the Keltic Lodge on the scenic Cabot Trail (plus dining and spa certificates) will be awarded to the registered show participant who travels the farthest distance to attend the show.

The first 200 registered entrants will receive a gift package.
